

WHO WE ARE

EMMA PEARCE

Attorney

Direct: (345) 949-7237 | emma@broadhurstllc.com

Emma joined Broadhurst LLC in January 2025 with 18 years of experience in family law matters.

Practice Areas

Children (Public Law)

Emma acts for a number of local authorities and also represents parents, children, grandparents and interveners in both care and adoption proceedings. She regularly acts in complex cases involving issues of sexual, physical and emotional abuse, drugs and alcohol abuse, domestic violence and children with medical conditions. Emma is regularly instructed in fact-finding hearings involving issues of non-accidental bruising, multiple fractures, allegations of sexual abuse and a recent case involving fabricated induced illness.

Emma also has extensive experience representing parents with learning difficulties and mental health issues.

Children (Private Law)

Emma has been involved in several complicated cases such as fact finding cases including allegations of physical and sexual harm as well as cases involving Rule 16.4 Guardians. Emma has extensive expertise in all section 8 Children Act applications including internal relocation and Special Guardianship applications.

Domestic Violence & Injunctions

Emma is experienced in dealing with urgent and non-urgent cases including non-molestation orders and contested occupation orders.

Legal 500 Recommendations

Recommended by Legal 500 2025 -Family: children and domestic abuse

“Emma has meticulous attention to detail. She has a very nice, reassuring manner with clients, providing realistic advice about the likely outcome.”